Real Estate Opportunity Description

Since humans settled into cities ten thousand years ago, buying and selling real estate has been a solid pathway towards wealth and through any kind of economic climate, buying and selling property has always been a solid strategy for earning income. The significant amount of specialized knowledge required for real estate transactions, though, has kept most people from benefiting from this. Real estate agents, brokers, mortgage companies, property inspectors, title companies, and escrow companies are but a few of the complex web of participants in the real estate industry and coordinating all of them has required taking classes and getting real estate licenses. That situation, however, is all about to change.

There is now a new social networking service that lets people's profit from their natural desire to share what they like with family, friends, and others. Wavup is a new service that lets people connect and share what they love. With a Facebook-like interface they can use at home or on their mobile devices, users can build teams of family, friends, and others to run a virtual real estate business of their own on the Wavup platform. Wavup provides all the resources an entrepreneur will need to create their own successful real estate business, but without all the usual expenses and fees. Wavup will give you all the information you need to learn how to buy and sell property like an experienced insider - for free!

TESTIMONIALS

"Best I have ever seen." (US Central Intelligence Agency)

"Extremely Insightful." (Government of Kenya)

"Jackie did a great job working to make the solution relevant." (Finances and Administrative Services Director, Major Western US City Government)

*"Profound and brilliant - thank you!"

"Your teaching style is spectacular. I wish that my law school, undergraduate, and grade school teachers approached discussion and information dissemination the way you do. Based on my current life philosophies, I would have found your class to be extremely rewarding even without making any improvement in my reading speed." (SR, February 2012 Seattle Workshop Participant)

Here's how it works. After accepting your invitation to join WavUp, you start building your network of teammates. For every property you refer that sells on WavUp, you get $5,000. But you can earn more. When you get 5 or more people to accept your invite to join WavUp for free, you become a Level 1 Leader and your commission for sales increases to $6,000. And when you refer a sale, every member of your team gets $1,000 from that sale.

Your team members can build their own teams and when 5 or more of your team members become Level 1 Leaders themselves, you become an Owner and your commission for sales increases to $7,000. And you get $1,000 from sales that each of your Level 2 team members make. At the Owner level, lots of exciting WavUp bonuses come your way as well.

Most all property sales involve financing, and you benefit from that process as well by getting $200 for each referral transaction and an additional $50 for each referral from your teammates. That's an additional $1700 a month!

The power of your social network to magnify your income will be apparent as you build your team. For example, if you have a team of 5 Level 1 leaders, each with a 5 person team, if you all make one sale a month, your income would be $37,000 for that month.

And it doesn't stop there. WavUp also manages properties and for every property you refer for management, you get $600 per year and every property management referral from your team gets you an additional $100.

Starting a real estate business can be an expensive proposition. With Wavup, you won't need to pay for expensive classes to learn the business and you won't need to hire employees, set up an office, or pay rent. There will be no marketing expenses or franchise fees - just the opportunity to learn what you need to know and connect with like minded entrepreneurs.

Buying and selling real estate is a huge opportunity and Wavup will give the chance for nearly everyone to achieve success in this industry. Your new career as a real estate entrepreneur is waiting for you. Join WavUp today!
